

Modern Slavery Policy Statement

Company Introduction:

Sale Group (inclusive of Sale Service & Maintenance Ltd, Sale Maintenance Ltd and Sale NuGen Ltd) is a supplier of building services systems and maintenance services. It operates from its head office in Cheam, Surrey.

Modern Slavery Policy:

Sale Group is committed to avoiding acts of modern-day slavery from within its own business and within its supply chains. It recognises the company's responsibility under the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and will ensure transparency within the organisation and with suppliers of goods and services to the company.

Sale Group is a small company which supplies and maintains a range of mechanical, electrical, maintenance, plumbing and security systems services. The company's contracts range from maintenance contracts involving routine and reactive repair activity to permanent site-based maintenance service.

As part of the company's due diligence processes into slavery and human trafficking, the supplier approval process will incorporate a review of the controls undertaken by the supplier. Parts purchased from manufacturers based outside the UK and the EU are potentially at higher risk of slavery/trafficking issues and will be closely monitored.

The company will not deal with any business knowingly involved in slavery or human trafficking.

In addition, the company endeavours to provide training about slavery and human trafficking to its employees.

The Director's will take the responsibility for implementing the policy statement and its objectives and will ensure adequate briefing to ensure that slavery and human trafficking is not taking place within the company or its supply chain.
