

Prevention of Illegal Working Policy

1. Statement of Policy

Sale Group (inclusive of Sale Service & Maintenance Ltd and Sale Maintenance Ltd) are committed to the compliance with terms of the Immigration, Asylum & Nationality Act 2006, which is designed to prevent illegal working in the UK.

2. Scope of Application

This policy applies to any new employee, whether on salary, wages, fees or any other form of payment and irrespective of the length or duration of the work.

3. Policy Rules and Application

All Sale Group staff authorized to offer employment and engage employees in any form of employment must make basic checks on everyone they intend to employ. By checking and copying certain original documents belonging to the potential employee, Sale Group can ensure a statutory defense against conviction for employing an illegal worker.

Employment is generally offered in two operational areas:

Site work – to carry out core activities at client's workplaces and premises.

Office work – to carry out various managerial, supervisory and administrative duties.

3.1 Policy for Site Workers

Site workers require defined levels of competence established by the Project Manager having the necessary levels of education, experience, skills and qualifications to carry out core activities safely and effectively. The policy for recruitment.

Our definition of competence for the selection and employment of site workers and Project Managers is based the following requirements for technical qualifications:

Time served apprentice training to City & Guilds training, Building & Construction related HNC, Level 4 in Building Services Engineering Technician or Equivalent
Site related training: SMSTS, First Aid, Asbestos Awareness, PASMA and IPAF training

As these qualifications are currently identified with UK educational standards it is unlikely that any non-UK resident would achieve these necessary basic qualifications. European or non-UK vocational qualifications do not meet the requirements of the UK requirements and therefore Sale Group does not recognise them as suitable for employment within Sale Group. Issues associated with the employment of non-UK residents does not apply therefore.
